A. REGULATIONS FOR POSTGRADUATE QUALIFICATIONS

The rules for postgraduate qualifications here published are subject to change and may be amended prior to the commencement of the academic year in 2012.

1. REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

1.1 Applying for admission

Students, who wish to register at the University of Pretoria for the first time, or wish to re-register after interruption of their studies, must apply for admission. Applications for admission must reach the University by 30 September of the year preceding study except for programmes where selection of candidates will take place. Candidates may be requested to complete an admissions test.

In most instances a minimum average achievement of 60% in the preceding year of study is required for admission to postgraduate degree programmes in the Faculty of Humanities. Prospective students should enquire at the relevant department regarding specific criteria for admission to a postgraduate programme.

Admission to doctoral studies is normally subject to a minimum of 65% for the dissertation in the related master's programme articulating with the specific doctoral degree programme. In the case of a coursework master's degree, the mini-dissertation should have contributed at least 50% to the final results for the master's degree programme articulating with the doctoral degree.

1.2 Selection

Admission to the following degree programmes is subject to formal selection: Criminology, Psychology, Human Movement Science, Sports Sciences and Journalism.

1.3 Language of tuition

In conducting its general business, the University uses two official languages, namely Afrikaans and English.

In formal education, the language of tuition is either Afrikaans or English or both languages, taking the demand as well as academic justification and economic viability into consideration. However, it remains the student's responsibility to determine in which language a module and any further level of that module is presented. This information is published annually in the Timetable. The University reserves the right to change the language of tuition on short notice, depending on the size of the groups and the availability of lecturers. In respect of administrative and other services, a student may choose whether the University should communicate with him or her in Afrikaans or English.

1.4 Bursaries and loans

Details about bursaries and loans are available on request or visit the website at www.up.ac.za/fao

1.5 Residence accommodation

Applications for placement in the University residences for a particular year may be submitted from 1 March of the preceding year. Applications will only be considered if there are vacancies in the residences, and prospective students are advised to apply as soon as possible.

Note: Admission to the University does not automatically mean that residence accommodation is available.

1.6 Changes to regulations and fees

The University reserves the right to amend regulations and syllabi where necessary and to change study programme fees without prior notice.

1.7 Cancellation of modules

Cancellation and/or changing of modules must be done within 10 days after commencement of modules. This date will be strictly enforced.

1.8 Academic literacy

It could be required from new postgraduate students to provide proof of their academic literacy.

1.9 Credit for modules

No credit will be given for modules which form part of another degree programme where the student has already complied with the requirements of such a degree. The rule is also applicable in instances where the student is currently registered for more than one degree programme.

2. FACULTY-SPECIFIC REGULATIONS

2.1 Registration for a particular year

Students register at the start of each academic year for all the modules they wish to take in that year, in accordance with the rules governing the programme and package they wish to register for.

2.2 Renewal of registration

2.2.1 Honours degree

Subject to exceptions approved by the Dean, on the recommendation of the head of the department, a student may not sit for an examination for the honours degree more than twice in the same module.

A student for an honours degree must complete his or her study, in the case of full-time students, within two years and, in the case of part-time students, within three years of first registering for the degree. Under special circumstances, the Dean, on the recommendation of the head of the department, may give approval for a limited extension of this period.

2.2.2 Master's degree (Coursework)

Subject to exceptions approved by the Dean, on the recommendation of the head of department, a student may not enter for the master's examination in the same module more than twice.

A student who is allowed to sit for the examination more than twice in the same department, must pay the full fees for this examination.

2.2.3 Master's degree (Research)

A student for a master's degree must complete his or her studies within four years after first registering for the degree. Under special circumstances, the Dean, on the recommendation of the head of department, may give approval for a limited fixed extension of this period.

2.3 Minimum study periods and requirements for degrees

2.3.1 Honours degree

- (i) An honours degree is only conferred on a student, if the student has complied with the following minimum periods of study:
 - (a) One academic year after the qualification has been obtained by virtue of which admission to the study has been granted;
 - (b) Where an honours degree is followed concurrently with a bachelor's degree, one academic year in addition to the minimum period prescribed for the bachelor's degree in question – with the proviso that in cases of exceptional merit, the University may, in agreement with the Joint Statute, shorten the minimum period of attendance.
- (ii) In addition to the stipulations of G.22.1, an honours degree is only conferred on a student if the student has complied with all the requirements laid down in these faculty regulations.

2.3.2 Master's degree

- (i) The master's degree is conferred on a student only if at least one year for research and two years for coursework has expired after the qualifications by virtue of which admission to master's study has been obtained – with the proviso that the student is registered for at least 12 months for a master's degree at this University, although the Dean may approve a shorter period.
- (ii) Subject to the stipulations of G.36.1, a master's degree is conferred on a student only if he or she complies with all the requirements laid down in these faculty regulations.

2.3.3 Doctorate

The doctorate is conferred on a student only if one of the following periods has expired:

- (i) At least four years after complying with all the requirements for a three-year bachelor's degree.
- (ii) At least three years after complying with all the requirements for a four-year bachelor's degree.
- (iii) At least two years after complying with all the requirements for a bachelor's degree of five years or more.
- (iv) At least two years after complying with all the requirements for a master's degree.

Subject to a shorter period as approved by the Dean, at least 12 months since registration for the doctorate at this University have expired.

2.4 Procedures with regard to registration for master's and doctoral degree programmes (by research)

No interruption may occur in a postgraduate student's registration for a research orientated postgraduate study programme. Should a student interrupt his/her studies, such a student will upon re-registration be liable for the full fees applicable to the degree or diploma programme.

Postgraduate students, who fail to renew their registration annually, are regarded as having had an interruption in their studies.

2.4.1 Students for the master's degree (by research only) must:

- (i) submit an approved research proposal before registration of a specific degree programme. If the proposal is not approved before registration, the student registers for Master's Preparatory (code: 01282000). This interim registration for a maximum of one year will be converted to full registration once the departmental research committee has approved the research proposal;
- (ii) submit a research proposal on an appropriate topic approved by the head of department in the department where the degree will be supervised during the year of interim registration. The research proposal for the dissertation must be approved by the departmental research committee, after which it must be submitted to the Research Proposal and Ethics Committee of the Faculty of Humanities for final approval before the research can be proceeded with.

2.4.2 Students for the DPhil, DLitt or PhD degrees must:

- (i) submit an approved research proposal before registration of a specific degree programme. If the proposal is not approved before registration, the student register for Doctoral Preparatory (Code: 01283000). This interim registration (to the maximum of one year) will be converted to full registration once the departmental research committee approved the research proposal;
- (ii) submit a research proposal on an appropriate topic as approved by the head of department in the department where the degree is supervised during the year of interim registration. The research proposal for the thesis must be approved by the departmental research committee, after which it must be submitted to the Research Proposal and Ethics Committee of the Faculty of Humanities for final approval before the research can be proceeded with;
- (iii) submit a thesis on the approved topic for examination;
- (iv) pass an oral doctoral examination before the degree can be conferred. The doctoral examination, which can also be in the format of a defence of thesis or seminar, is done before a panel of examiners appointed by the Dean, in collaboration with the head of department, supervisor and research coordinator.

2.4.3 Students enrolling for a coursework master's degree programme must, in the case of ethical implications, submit a research proposal for a mini-dissertation beforehand to the Research Proposal and Ethics Committee of the Faculty of Humanities for approval before the research can be proceeded with. Also see Reg, G.57.

2.5 Assessment

The regulations given below apply to the assessment of postgraduate modules for honours and master's degree programmes with coursework offered by departments in the Faculty of Humanities. Departments may, in exceptional cases and in consultation with the Dean, make alternative arrangements with regard to specific modules.

At the beginning of a module, students must be informed in the study guide about the arrangements regarding assessment in that particular module.

2.5.1 Examinations

- (i) A minimum progress mark of 40% is required for admission to the examination.
- (ii) In the calculation of the final mark for the module in which an examination is written, the progress mark will carry a weight of a minimum of 50% and the examination a weight of a minimum of 50%. The progress mark is calculated on the basis of two assessments done during the period that the module is presented.
- (iii) In order to pass a module, a final mark of at least 50% and a minimum examination mark of 40% must be obtained, except when a module can be completed without a scheduled examination. A student will pass a module with distinction if a final mark of at least 75% is achieved.
- (iv) A module may be completed without a scheduled examination* provided that:
 - (a) all the outcomes of the module have been evaluated by means of formative assessment;
 - (b) the final mark is based on the student's performance in at least three assessment opportunities;
 - (c) a final mark of at least 50% is obtained; and
 - (d) students are not provided with an additional opportunity for assessment, such as a supplementary examination or a retest.

NB The Dean's permission must be obtained beforehand in such cases.
- (v) The final results for all modules will only be published after condonation of the results by the examination commission of the Faculty of Humanities. No results will be released beforehand.

2.5.2 Supplementary and extraordinary examinations (including aegrotats)
Only where applicable.

2.5.3 Exemption from an examination (promotion)
No promotions are allowed in any modules in the Faculty of Humanities.

2.5.4 A formal examination (written or oral) is a requirement for doctoral degrees in the Faculty of Humanities unless the Dean of the Faculty gives exemption. Also see Reg. G.52.

2.6 Degree with distinction

Except where otherwise indicated for individual programmes, a student has to obtain an average of at least 75% in order to pass the degree with distinction. The doctoral degree cannot be conferred with distinction.

3. DRAFT ARTICLE FOR PUBLICATION

Unless Senate, on the recommendation of the supervisor, decides otherwise, a student, before or on submission of a dissertation must submit at least one draft article for publication in a recognised academic journal and in the case of a thesis, must submit proof of submission of an article issued by an accredited journal, to the Head: Student Administration.

The draft or submitted article, as the case may be, should be based on the research that the student has conducted for the dissertation/thesis and be approved by the supervisor if the supervisor is not a co-author.

The supervisor shall be responsible for ensuring that the article is taken through all the processes of revision and resubmission, as may be necessary. Conferment of the degree may be made subject to compliance with the stipulations of this regulation.

C.3.7 BSocSciHons in Psychology (Code: 01243009)

Please note that this programme will only be offered in English.

Programme manager:

Dr AA Gildenhuys, HB 11-9, Tel: 012 420 2541, email: assie.gildenhuys@up.ac.za

Closing date for applications:

30 September annually

Brief description:

The programme provides advanced academic and research training in psychology, equipping students to proceed with the master's degree programmes in any of the structured (professional) or academic programmes, transfer their skills to a variety of work contexts, and contribute to society. The training in this learning programme, furthermore, equips students with specific theoretical knowledge and the skills for applying this knowledge to understand, explain and describe human behaviour in a variety of contexts and to make predictions based on theory-driven arguments and sound research practices. Classes will only be presented in the evenings and English will be the only medium of instruction.

Admission requirements:

- A relevant bachelor's degree recognised by the Senate of the University of Pretoria with a minimum of six semester modules in psychology of which at least two semester modules must have been obtained at 3rd-year level.
- A minimum average of 70% is required for the psychology modules completed at 3rd-yr level.

Additional requirements:

- Research modules (RES 151, 261, 361 or equivalent) should have been included in the undergraduate degree. Additional research modules may be required, if deemed necessary by the head of department.

Note:

- The Department also considers equity, in terms of race, gender, and disability when selecting candidates.
- The number of students selected will be limited.
- Although the programme is structured for one-year full-time study, candidates can apply to the programme manager and/or head of department to do it over two years of study. Students intending to complete the programme over two years must keep in mind that the structure of the modules can change due to the availability of staff.

Please note:*

Only certain modules are presented annually. Please consult the programme manager in this regard.

MASTER'S PROGRAMMES IN PSYCHOLOGY

Assessments:

- (i) In order to pass a module, a final mark of at least 50% must be obtained. A student will pass a module with distinction if a final mark of at least 75% is achieved.
- (ii) Progress in modules is assessed through a variety of activities in a process of continuous assessment. Assessment is designed to ensure that all the outcomes of the modules have been evaluated by means of informative assessment.
- (iii) The final results for all modules will only be published after confirmation of the results by the examination commission of the Faculty of Humanities. No results will be released beforehand.

Requirements for progress to year II of the programme:

- (i) In each programme all requirements for year I of the programme must be met before proceeding to year II of the programme.
- (ii) Should all the requirements of year I not be met, year I may not be repeated and the student will have to leave the programme.
- (iii) Should the student wish to continue, he or she will have to reapply for admission in accordance with the rules applicable to the selection process for all new applications.
- (iv) No module may be carried over from year I to year II.

Requirements for progress to internship:

- (i) The rules and regulations as laid down by the Health Professions Council of South Africa (HPCSA) and as amended from time to time, will apply.
- (ii) All programme requirements of the degree must be successfully completed and the assessment thereof processed through the necessary committees of the University.
- (iii) The master's degree must be completed in two years.

Enquiry with regards to possible professional misconduct within the programme:

Should a student be considered in breach of any professional rule, regulation or code of conduct as laid down by the Professional Board for Psychology or the HPCSA, the student may be required to present him/herself before the executive committee of the Department of Psychology for an enquiry in order to ascertain whether or not the matter should be referred to the Professional Board or the HPCSA for a further investigation.

Discontinuation of participation in the programme:

The dean may, on the recommendation of the head of the Department of Psychology, conduct an enquiry into the alleged conduct and/or fitness of the student to practice. Possible outcomes of this process could include, but will not be limited to, the discontinuation of the student's participation in the programme during an academic year. This decision will be considered by a committee within the Department and various aspects of the student's progress and conduct within the programme will be assessed. The student will have the opportunity to respond and make representations regarding the allegations brought against him/her.

C.4.9 MA in Counselling Psychology (Code: 01250501)

This programme offers integrated academic, practical and professional training in counselling psychology.

Programme manager:

Prof LH Human, HB 11-32, Tel: 012 420 3685, email: lourens.human@up.ac.za

Closing date for applications:

30 June annually

Admission requirements:

- BSocSciHons or BAHons in Psychology or equivalent qualification accredited by the Council on Higher Education.
- Admission to any of the MA programmes is subject to assessment and selection of the candidate based on requirements prescribed by the programme as applicable from time to time.
- Candidates are selected for admission to the MA degree programme in Counselling Psychology.

Only a limited number of candidates are admitted to the programme annually. Information about the selection process and criteria must be obtained from the Department of Psychology at the time of application.

Curriculum:

The programme is a two-year full-time programme and is based on the researcher(50%)-practitioner(50%) model. All courses within all the modules of the researcher and practitioner training need to be passed to obtain the MA (Counselling Psychology) degree.

Once a student has successfully completed the MA (Counselling Psychology) degree, such student can apply for registration as an intern counselling psychologist with the Professional Board for Psychology at the Health Professions Council of South Africa (HPCSA) to do a one year full-time internship in Counselling Psychology. After successfully completing the internship in counselling psychology and the board exam of the Professional Board for Psychology at the HPCSA, an intern counselling psychologist can apply for registration as a counselling psychologist with the Professional Board for Psychology at the HPCSA. Such registration is subject to the regulations of the Professional Board for Psychology at the time of registration.

A. Researcher training

Researcher training entails 50% of the MA (Counselling Psychology) programme. During the two-year period students are expected to successfully write a research proposal, conduct a research project and to write a mini-dissertation (VOS 895).

B. Practitioner training

Practitioner training entails 50% of the MA (Counselling Psychology) programme. During the two-year period academic and practical training is done. The academic training is done via three core modules and two elective modules. The core modules are: Fundamentals of Psychology (SLK 801), Psychological assessment (SLK 806) and Counselling Psychology (SLK 802). The elective modules are: Community Psychology (SLK 804) and Sports Psychology (SLK 805). The training is delivered by means of didactic instruction and/or experiential learning. The practical training that is done by the students is arranged by the Department of Psychology on a yearly basis.

C. Professional development

Besides the researcher and practitioner training, the professional development of the students is addressed on a continuous basis in all modules during the two-year period. The professional development of students entails professional practice and professional identity development. The professional practice component focuses on the ethical and legal framework in which counselling psychologists practice, while professional identity development focuses on the "person" of the prospective counselling psychologist, the student.

Module content:

An introduction and advanced analysis is provided of global diplomatic practice, one of the most important institutionalised activities within the international system. The focus is predominantly state-centric, although the growing impact of non-state entities on the form and substance of diplomacy is accommodated. Aspects such as the evolution, modes, styles, legal framework and institutions of diplomacy are investigated, as well as the specific roles and functions of diplomats and emerging areas of diplomatic specialisation. An African perspective on all of the above is prioritised, and in this regard specific emphasis is placed on mediation – a diplomatic mode and specialisation that is crucial within the context of African diplomatic practice.

DIP 876 Diplomacy and international studies 876

Academic organisation: Political Sciences

Period of presentation: Semester 1 or Semester 2

Language of tuition: English

Credits: 30

Module content:

The holistic nature and interdisciplinary scope of diplomacy, as an institution, practice and area of academic study and research, are introduced and contextualised within the broad framework of international studies, incorporating aspects of international relations, international law and international political economy. Subsequently, the focus shifts to the theoretical and practical relationship between international relations, foreign policy and diplomacy as a tool of foreign policy. Accordingly, South Africa's diplomacy, at a global and regional level, is critically analysed using the comparative method amongst others.

DIP 877 Diplomatic theory 877Academic organisation: Political SciencesContact time: 2 lpwPeriod of presentation: Semester 1 or Semester 2Language of tuition: EnglishCredits: 30Module content:

An introduction to and analysis of diplomatic theory, defined as systematic reflection on diplomatic ideas, activities and issues. Such reflection has historical, conceptual and normative elements that by nature pertain to diplomatic practice as empirical referent. This involves the critical examination of key assumptions on diplomacy. On the one hand, since diplomatic ideas inevitably reflect broader international relations theories and since the modern diplomat should have some understanding of the latter, attention is given to these. On the other hand, on a capita selecta basis, attention is paid to theoretical perspectives on issues that appear on the global diplomatic agenda.

DIP 878 Methodology of diplomatic studies 878Academic organisation: Political SciencesContact time: 2 lpwPeriod of presentation: Semester 1 or Semester 2Language of tuition: EnglishCredits: 30Module content:

Using appropriate methodological approaches and research methods, aspects of the diplomatic theory and diplomatic practice modules are applied to specific diplomatic case studies and issues of international and transnational importance. In addition to the emphasis of methodology and selected research methods, attention is also paid to the development, structure and writing of research reports in the field of diplomatic studies. The outcome of this module is an approved research proposal on a diplomatic theme for the mini-dissertation, that also complies with ethical guidelines.

DIP 895 Mini-dissertation: Diplomatic studies 895Academic organisation: Political SciencesPeriod of presentation: YearLanguage of tuition: Both Afr and EngCredits: 60Module content:

A mini-dissertation based on independent research done by the student in the broad field of diplomacy, is written under the guidance of a supervisor.

ENZ 701 Medieval literature 701

Academic organisation: English

Contact time: 1 spw

Period of presentation: Semester 2

Language of tuition: English

Credits: 15

Module content:

This module introduces the student to the reading and appreciation of Old and Middle English art forms in which the emphasis falls on aesthetic and moral issues, rather than on psychological ones. The module is an integrated one beginning with the study of the Old English epic, Beowulf, and includes Anglo-Saxon models as well as homiletic or heroic poems. The Middle Ages witness the reintroduction of English as the language of court, in preference to French, and the growth of narrative and lyrical poetry. Representations of both types of poetry are studied.

The English Renaissance spans the period of approximately 1560-1660. This is the period of great expansion in English literature. This module deals with the period from the Elizabethan Age to the early Restoration. It excludes Shakespeare, to whom a separate module is devoted, but deals with Shakespeare's contemporaries. It further deals with the major poets of the periods and with some of the prose. The Puritan movement and some of its main figures are included.

ENZ 705 The Augustan vision 705

Academic organisation: English

Contact time: 1 spw

Period of presentation: Semester 2

Language of tuition: English

Credits: 15

Module content:

This module explores a range of works written between 1660 and 1760 and, in keeping with recent critical approaches to the period, emphasises the age's exuberance, comic and satiric energy, and willingness to experiment with literary forms. Writers discussed include Pope, Johnson, Swift, Wycherley, Congreve and a selection of less well-known female poets and dramatists.

ENZ 706 The romance in England 706

Various theories explaining the causes of crime are studied. Because most of the existing theories were developed in the United States of America, attention is given to the possibility of using these theories within the South African context.

KRM 703 Victimology 703

Academic organisation: Social Work and Criminology

Contact time: 3 lpw

Period of presentation: Quarter 3

Language of tuition: Double medium

Credits: 15

Module content:

Victimology involves the scientific study of the crime victim. Nine central themes pertaining to victimology are addressed, for example, the victimisation process, interaction with the offender and the criminal justice system, as well as victim support and victim compensation. Specific categories of victims such as victims of taxi violence, farm murders, cash in transit heists, motor vehicle hijacking and political violence are also studied.

KRM 706 Psychocriminology 706

Academic organisation: Social Work and Criminology

Module content:

Due to the multidisciplinary, concurring and coordinating nature of criminalistics, the subject cannot be regarded as a separate discipline with its own unique methods and techniques. Criminalistics involve an integrated process that includes the following:

- identification of criminal actions and the persons involved in it, whether dead or alive;
- fieldwork methods and techniques of the criminal investigator; and
- laboratory analyses carried out during the investigation process.

KRM 709 Economic offences 709Academic organisation: Social Work and CriminologyContact time: 3 lpwPeriod of presentation: Quarter 4Language of tuition: Double mediumCredits: 15Module content:

The culture of materialism and financial success that currently prevail in South Africa gives rise to an increasing number of economic related crimes being committed. These offences and more specifically the characteristics, causes, cost and various types of economic crimes will receive attention in this module. Considering that a large number of offenders employ their skills within group context to obtain political power, organised crime is regarded as an important component of this module. The structure, characteristics and forms assumed by organised crime activities are addressed. In addition, some of the economic crimes that are committed exclusively for their economic benefits are also studied.

- prose (fiction),
- prose (creative non-fiction: biography or autobiography), or
- literary translation/adaptation.

In itself it should be a complete work, or set of complete shorter works and should in substance be the equivalent of at least (in fiction) a short novel or a collection of short stories, or (in poetry) a book-length collection of poems, or (in drama) a full-length play or a collection of at least three one-act plays. The dissertation should then consist of a substantial piece of creative writing, accompanied by a theoretical section (a dissertation of limited scope) in which the candidate reflects upon contexts and influences, and/or upon the process of composition and revision that has taken place in the production of the creative text and/or upon theoretical aspects (eg symbolism, textual and intertextual strategies) of the work. This section accounts for 50% of the final mark.

This study of national security focuses on decisions, activities and institutions related to national security and national security policy. These underpin the strategic choices made at international, regional and national levels in response to security challenges, be they by individual countries or in the multilateral context of regional or global security cooperation. Competing theoretical approaches to national security are also explored and assessed, as well as the policy and strategic contexts that influence the decisions, institutions and processes of national security policy-making and security sector governance.

SEC 877 Security and strategic theory 877Academic organisation: Political SciencesContact time: 2 lpwPeriod of presentation: Semester 1 or Semester 2Language of tuition: EnglishCredits: 30Module content:

A critical analysis of the development of security theory and competing perspectives of security, in response to changing power configurations and security threats in the contemporary international system. This includes alternative frameworks for security cooperation at a regional and global level. Against this background, the evolution of strategic thought, the nature and role of principles of strategy and the concept of strategic doctrine are analysed. The contemporary application of the principles of strategy is discussed, and post-cold war thinking on strategy, security and war is addressed including the use of non-military coercion such as economic sanctions.

SEC 878 Methodology of security studies 878Academic organisation: Political SciencesContact time: 2 lpwPeriod of presentation: Semester 1 or Semester 2Language of tuition: EnglishCredits: 30

By using appropriate methodological approaches and research methods, selected aspects of related modules in security studies are applied to specific security and strategic case studies and issues of importance. In addition to the emphasis on methodological aspects and selected research methods, attention is also paid to the development, structure and writing of research reports in the field of security studies. This module has an approved research proposal on a security or strategic theme for the mini-dissertation that also complies with ethical guidelines, as an outcome.

SEC 879 Strategic intelligence and forecasting 879

Academic organisation: Political Sciences

Contact time: 2 lpw

Period of presentation: Semester 1 or Semester 2

Language of tuition: English

Credits: 30

Module content:

National security is closely related to threat perception, and threat analysis is in turn largely dependent on sound strategic intelligence. Attention is given to contemporary theory and practice as far as strategic intelligence is concerned; questions of policy on, agencies for and control over the intelligence process; and the current processes, focus, value and utilisation of strategic intelligence in a changing world. Strategic forecasting (with the inclusion of risk analysis and scenario construction) is linked to threat perception and national security to the extent that it forms an important part of planning for the future – hence the study of the nature, methodology and use of forecasting in the security environment.
