Human communication 320 (KMP 320)

Qualification	Undergraduate
Faculty	Faculty of Humanities
Module credits	10.00
Programmes	BA Audiology
Prerequisites	KMP 210, KMP 220
Contact time	3 lectures per week
Language of tuition	Double Medium
Academic organisation	Speech-Language Pathlgy + Aud
Period of presentation	Semester 2

Module content

*Closed – requires departmental selection
Augmentative and alternative communication. Different issues and principles related to augmentative and alternative communication intervention: multi-component systems, requisites and support systems. The application of different systems, in particular the use of technology in daily living. Service-related professional functions in Communication Pathology: Consultation, counselling, education and management. The speech-language therapist and audiologist as consultants in developing countries; medico-legal consultation. Consultation with and education of other professional groups. Counselling of a person with a communication disorder and family after the loss of normal communication or hearing. The speech-language therapist and audiologist as managers: administration, finances, personnel, purchases and budget.

The information published here is subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information. The General Regulations (G Regulations) apply to all faculties of the University of Pretoria. It is expected of students to familiarise themselves well with these regulations as well as with the information contained in the General Rules section. Ignorance concerning these regulations and rules will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression.