Other programme-specific information

Elective modules

- Choose two electives at first-year level of which one must be a language. These electives should also be taken up to second year level, of which the language taken at first- year level must be one of the second year electives. Continuing the elective to third-year level is considered an optional extra.
- Students select one of the following African Languages on first-year level: IsiZulu , Sepedi, Setswana, IsiNdebele .

- If Afrikaans is chosen for First Language Teaching, all modules must be taken (including JAF 361).
- If English is chosen for First Language Teaching, all modules must be taken (including JEN 361).
- If Intermediate Mathematics is chosen as an elective, all modules listed must be taken.
- If Science and Technology is chosen as an elective all modules in the combination have to be taken.
- Students who choose History or Geography as an elective must take all first year modules for both subjects, and then choose either Geography or History on second year-level. Both methodologies of History and Geography must be taken at second-year level, and the third and fourth year methodologies are taken according to the subject chosen to second year.
- Modules are chosen according to the class timetable. NO TIMETABLE CLASHES ARE ALLOWED
- Students can only choose one of Art Education or Music Education or Life Orientation and Human Movement Studies and Sport management and need to take all listed modules.
- Life orientation and Human movement studies and sport management must be taken together.
- In the case of Music Education either beginners (JMO 181, 182) or advanced level (JMO 101, 102, 201, 202, 203 and 204) is chosen at first year level.
- JNH 454 First aid is compulsory only for students who take Human Movement Studies and Sport Management as elective up to 3rd year level.

Mathematics modules

- WTW 146 and WTW 148 is available to BEd students who take only a single full year of Mathematics as an elective with either WTW 114 or WTW 134 as first semester module.
- WTW 161 and WTW 168 may be added to lists as alternatives used for recognition to replace WTW 126 and 128 or WTW 146 and 148, but are not available for BEd students.

Methodology of elective modules

Choose 2 methodologies in accordance with the elective modules chosen, of which one methodology must be the chosen language methodology. The same methodologies will be taken on second-, third- and fourth-year level.

Class attendance

The teacher education programmes of the Faculty of Education have been approved and accredited by the Department of Education. Due to the fact that the Faculty places high emphasis on the development of skills and competences, class attendance is compulsory for all student teachers for the full duration of the training period specified by SAQA (South African Qualification Authority).

Examinations and pass requirements

Special examinations

- A third-year student who has failed a maximum of four semester modules or the equivalent thereof, with a final mark of at least 40% in each, may be admitted by the Dean to a special examination in those modules during January of the following year, provided that this will enable the student to comply with all requirements for promotion to the fourth year of study.
- A final-year BEd student requiring a maximum of 4 semester modules or the equivalent thereof to complete his or her degree, with a final mark of 40% in each, may be admitted to a special examination, during January of the following year. If the special examination is conducted before 1 February, a student is not required to register again and the examination is treated as a supplementary examination. If the special examination is conducted on or after 1 February, the student must register again for the module(s) in question and the lecturer may require that a semester mark be obtained in an appropriate manner. In such a case, the result of the examination will not be taken into consideration with a view to the graduation ceremonies in March/April.

Pass with distinction

The degree is conferred with distinction to a student who obtains an overall weighted average (GPA) of 75% or higher in the BEd programme, with the condition that the degree is completed in the prescribed 4 years.
