PhD Information Systems (12264011)

Minimum duration of study	2 years
Total credits	360
NQF level	10

Programme information

Unless the Dean, on the recommendation of the chairperson of the school, decides otherwise, the PhD degree is conferred on the basis of a thesis and an examination on the thesis.

Admission requirements

- A master's degree in Information Technology/Information Systems with at least 65% (average for all the courses and also for the mini-dissertation or for the dissertation). In exceptional cases an applicant with a master's degree in other relevant fields might be considered for admission by the departmental Postgraduate Committee.
- An applicant may be expected to do preparatory study, the extent of which will be decided upon in consultation with the applicant.

Research information

Unless Senate, on the recommendation of the supervisor, decides otherwise, a student, before or on submission of a thesis, must submit proof of submission of an article to an accredited journal, to the Head: Student Administration. The draft or submitted article, as the case may be, should be based on the research that the student has conducted for the thesis and be approved by the supervisor if the supervisor is not a co-author. The supervisor shall be responsible for ensuring that the paper is taken through all the processes of revision and resubmission, as may be necessary. Conferment of the degree may be made subject to compliance with the stipulations of this regulation.

The student must provide proof by means of his or her work, thesis and examination of advanced original research and/or creative work which makes a real and substantial contribution to the relevant field of research.
