- BCom

Are you interested in studying toward a BCom degree, but are undecided about which major to select? If the fixed curricula offered by specialist degrees do not meet your broad academic interests, then the general BCom degree could be the perfect qualification for you.

The degree does not lead to a specific vocational outcome, but offers opportunities to determine your own career outcome, within limits. Students are able to compile their own curricula with a view to work opportunities in all sectors.

Apply for BCom if you:

- have competence and an interest in diverse study areas;
- want flexibility in selecting your modules; and
- do not want to specialise too early in your studies.

Once you have explored various elective modules in depth during your undergraduate studies, you can choose to specialise in a specific field by pursuing postgraduate studies.

For more information, please consult the Faculty webpage.
