Additional Requirements

Any prospective student wishing to make claims of equivalence will have to produce written evidence of their competence to undertake a programme at this level (written entrance assignment set by the University) in accordance with the University's RPL Policy and rules.

Computer literacy

The University of Pretoria makes use of Blackboard, branded as clickUP, which is an online system that provides a workspace for students, providing students with the information and the connections needed. ClickUP contains study material as well as a simple, convenient, and reliable web conferencing and virtual classroom solutions specifically built for education and training. ClickUP is accessible via a web browser mobile device, or tablet and has a useful student guide.

Students are required to have some technical and digital literacy skills such as the ability to:

- navigate the University's eLearning environment (ClickUP);
- use the email service in the LMS;
- manage digital files: create, store, upload and attach files to assignment submissions (using applications such as MS Word, MS Excel, MS PowerPoint);
- use the Library website or databases for research and make use of proper referencing techniques;
- use a webcam, upload videos or audio files, use social media for communication or to collaborate electronically; and
- download and install software and applications.

Other programme-specific information

Exam entry in all subjects requires a minimum 40%. In order to continue on the programme, all students must receive exam entry in every module. Students cannot be registered on the programme more than two years.

Pass with Distinction

Obtain a Cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) of at least 75% and the Diploma must be completed within the minimum period of time.

Annual Increase and Payment Information:

- Module pricing is subject to change at the start of each year without prior notice.
- UPOne tuition fees will increase annually by approximately 5%.
- The annual increase applies from the March intake, which is the second intake of the year.
- If the programme fee is paid in full upfront, the student remains responsible for the difference between the initial payment and the increased amount until programme completion.
- Any payments made will first be applied to settle any outstanding debt owed to the University of Pretoria.
- The total programme cost is all-inclusive.
- Always quote your student number (EMPLID) when making payments.
- UPOne follows a 'Pay as you study' model - you pay only for the module(s) you register for.
- Tuition fees are divided into equal payments per module and must be paid upon registration before the start of the module to ensure continued access to study resources.
- UPOne students are not eligible for discounts on tuition fees, and no payment arrangements can be made.
