Module-inhoud

* Hierdie module word slegs in Engels aangebied.

This module will provide students with the essential techniques, skills and insights that Senior Executives and Management require to successfully, strategically and effectively plan, manage, monitor and execute throughout the life cycle of a project. Students will be able to assess, identify and mitigate the potential and forecasted constraints, risks and issues that could be or will be over time causing failure within a project. Then to be able to report, communicate and manage key stakeholder's expectations, suppliers and team members' delivery through effective facilitation.
