

University of Pretoria Yearbook 2017

Mini-dissertation: African languages 896 (AFT 896)

Qualification Postgraduate

Faculty Faculty of Humanities

Module credits 100.00

Programmes MA African Languages \(Coursework\)

Prerequisites No prerequisites.

Language of tuition Separate classes for Afrikaans and English

Academic organisation African Languages

Period of presentation Year

Module content

The mini-dissertation should be the product of independent research on any of the following themes: linguistics (African languages), literature (African languages), teaching of African languages, translation, lexicographical and/or terminological issues pertaining to the African languages. Apart from an analysis and interpretation of research results, the mini-dissertation should include a thorough overview of the literature on the selected topic and a synthesis of existing views as reflected in the literature.

Length: 18 000–20 000 words.

The information published here is subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information. The General Regulations \(G Regulations\) apply to all faculties of the University of Pretoria. It is expected of students to familiarise themselves well with these regulations as well as with the information contained in the General Rules section. Ignorance concerning these regulations and rules will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression.