

University of Pretoria Yearbook 2017

Methodology of Religion studies 454 (JMF 454)

Qualification Undergraduate

Faculty Faculty of Education

Module credits 3.00

Programmes BEd Senior Phase and Further Education and Training Teaching

Contact time 2 lectures per week, 2 practicals per week

Language of tuition Afrikaans and English is used in one class

Academic organisation School for Teachers Training

Period of presentation Quarter 4

Module content

This module aims to equip students to successfully present Religion Studies in the Senior and/or Further Education and Training Phase. The theoretical underpinning of the content of the syllabus as well as the requirements expected to guide learners studying Religion Studies as subject are studied. Students are expected to prepare phase specific teaching activities according to the requirements of the school syllabus for the phase in which they are enrolled to prepare them for their role as teachers of Religion Studies. Students present lessons through micro-teaching and apply appropriate assessment and questioning; present an assignment and apply previously acquired communication skills in the teaching of Religion Studies.

The information published here is subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information. The General Regulations \(G Regulations\) apply to all faculties of the University of Pretoria. It is expected of students to familiarise themselves well with these regulations as well as with the information contained in the General Rules section. Ignorance concerning these regulations and rules will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression.