

University of Pretoria Yearbook 2017

Politics 120 (PTO 120)

Qualification	Undergraduate
Faculty	Faculty of Humanities
Module content	Cooperation in the political world An introduction to cooperation at national and international levels with specific reference to the nature, foundations and politics of cooperation. This includes an analysis and comparison of the politicisation, localisation and internationalisation of issues and of the problems at national, regional and international levels related to cooperation in an increasingly interdependent world characterised by the absence of supranational institutions. Attention is also paid to the corresponding dynamics of regime development, performance and change.
Module credits	12.00
Programmes	BAdmin Public Management BIS Information Science LLB
Service modules	Faculty of Economic and Management Sciences Faculty of Law
Prerequisites	PTO 111(GS)
Contact time	1 discussion class per week, 2 lectures per week
Language of tuition	Separate classes for Afrikaans and English
Academic organisation	Political Sciences
Period of presentation	Semester 2

The information published here is subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information. The General Regulations \(G Regulations\) apply to all faculties of the University of Pretoria. It is expected of each student to familiarise himself or herself well with these regulations as well as with the information contained in the General Rules section. Ignorance concerning these regulations and rules will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression.