Programme information

The aim of the programme is to make students musically literate and to develop their practical music-making skills. They also learn to understand and appreciate many facets of the theory and history of music and are trained as capable classroom teachers. Apart from the music aspects of this programme, students register for other BA modules in which they acquire the requisite knowledge, skills and views of those disciplines.

Closing date for applications: 30 June annually (late applications on request).

Additional requirements

Departmental selection is required for this programme.

Admission is subject to an interview and to a test in the student's instrument and if deemed necessary by the head of the department, in writing skills. Expected standard: Grade V Practical (Unisa/Royal Schools/Trinity).

Other programme-specific information

- Students who are deemed NOT to be at risk of their level of academic literacy, are exempted from ALL 110 and ALL 125.
- See Regulations and Syllabi of the Faculty of Natural and Agricultural Sciences for information regarding prerequisites for relevant modules.
- Students are required to attend the weekly performance class and the fortnightly seminars. Students whose instrument is an orchestral instrument for the module MPM must play in the UP Symphony Orchestra or other ensembles as determined by the Department – it will count as 10% of their examination mark. See the detailed description of the MPM modules in the list of modules.
