

University of Pretoria Yearbook 2018

Theatre studies: Theory 311 (TNT 311)

Qualification	Undergraduate
Faculty	Faculty of Humanities
Module content	*Closed – only for BDram students *This module offers a choice between Applied drama and Intermediate directing Applied drama The module investigates the use of drama as methodology in educational, community and corporate contexts. The interface between applied theatre and applied drama will be explored. The module culminates in a practical project. or Intermediate directing This module investigates the notions of concept, space, style, method and aesthetic in order to harness a praxis in directing. The module aims to activate conceptualisation skills and refers to contemporary directing methodologies in its aim to develop a directorial praxis. The module further provides the opportunities to begin to develop a distinctive directing style and voice while studying contemporary directing methods and concepts. The module culminates in a short directing scene.
Module credits	20.00
Programmes	BDram
Prerequisites	TNT 211 or TNT 222
Contact time	3 lectures per week
Language of tuition	Afrikaans and English are used in one class
Department	Drama
Period of presentation	Semester 1

The information published here is subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information. The General Regulations \(G Regulations\) apply to all faculties of the University of Pretoria. It is expected of each student to familiarise himself or herself well with these regulations as well as with the information contained in the General Rules section. Ignorance concerning these regulations and rules will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression.