

University of Pretoria Yearbook 2020

Consumer aspects of food 417 (VDS 417)

Faculty Faculty of Natural and Agricultural Sciences

Module credits 15.00

Programmes BConSci Food Retail Management

Prerequisites BEM 212

Contact time 3 lectures per week

Consumer and Food Sciences

Undergraduate

Language of tuition Afrikaans and English are used in one class

Semester 1

Department Consumer and

Module content

Period of presentation

Qualification

Role playing factors relating to consumer behaviour, food procurement and consumption. The introduction of the 2011 Consumer protection act and food labelling laws. Consumer education in relation to consumers' social responsibility. The UN sustainable development goal #12 is addressed in this subject. Projects are focused on consumer education, responsible consumer consumption and household production as well as community engagement.

The information published here is subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information. The General Regulations (G Regulations) apply to all faculties of the University of Pretoria. It is expected of students to familiarise themselves well with these regulations as well as with the information contained in the General Rules section. Ignorance concerning these regulations and rules will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression.