BSocSciHons Development Studies (01243017)

Department Anthropology and Archaeology

Minimum duration of study 1 year

Total credits 120

NQF level 08

Programme information

The programme offers an advanced cross-disciplinary study of development processes – history of the field of study, epistemological questions of theory, research methods, and the empirical contemporary world of development practice. While the focus is on global processes, emphasis is placed on local and regional examples and on practical applications to local and regional situations. The programme is suited for students from the social, agricultural and environmental sciences that have an interest in understanding development and in bringing change to their societies. It is also relevant for people working in government, the nongovernmental sector, and others seeking to improve their understanding of the changing world.

Admission requirements

1. Relevant bachelor's degree with specialisation in social sciences
2. A weighted average of at least 65% in Social Sciences at final-year level
