

University of Pretoria Yearbook 2022

Constructions of early childhood 320 (CEC 320)

Qualification	Undergraduate
Faculty	Faculty of Education
Module credits	12.00
NQF Level	07
Prerequisites	No prerequisites.
Contact time	2 lectures per week
Language of tuition	Module is presented in English
Department	Early Childhood Education
Period of presentation	Semester 2

Module content

This module focuses on the constructions of early childhood belonging, being and becoming of young children, according to the developmental stages/ages, in relation to the family, community, culture and environments young children get to experience, . Building onto the Education (OPV) 122 (child development and learning), this module deals with the theoretical perspectives on young children's social identity and implications thereof to early childhood care and learning environments and practice; relationship between the children's everyday life experiences/interactions and development of interests and construction of identities; factors influencing belonging, being and becoming from African perspectives; and the effect of personal experiences and social identity on teaching and learning.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations \(G Regulations\) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.