Module content

This elective is designed to help students understand the role of business in a complex multi-stakeholder society. It will also allow students not only to think across sectoral boundaries, but also realise the value of building different forms of capital. The elective will require deep reflection from the student on the state of the planet and the role of leadership in ensuring a sustainable future for all.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations \(G Regulations\) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
