Module content

The purpose of this elective course is to discuss, at the level of the country and organisation, the concepts of transformation. It addresses the corporate citizenship role that organisations have to play in transforming South Africa.

The first part of the course will deal with the country's legislation framework on transformation, the drivers of the legislation and the governance structures in government to monitor and measure the transformation progress in South Africa. We will also take stock of the status of transformation in the country.

The second part of this elective will focus on the challenges and opportunities in the country and the workplace in relation to transformation.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations \(G Regulations\) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
