Module content

The objective of this course is to create the opportunity for students to enhance their ability to work with others and help them reflect on their individual beliefs, attitudes, and responses to others. At the individual level the course will focus on two key areas of leadership: Managing yourself (self awareness and understanding) and managing relationships (the impact you have on others). These two aspects involve a high level of self-awareness, the willingness to risk new behaviours, and the capacity to be flexible and make changes as the environment changes. The course is integrative and focuses on different aspects important for success. It provides perspectives, frameworks and concepts from the different management disciplines that you have encountered during your MBA. Furthermore, it is dedicated to developing self-aware leaders who are able to effectively manage relationships and positively impact global business and society.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations \(G Regulations\) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
