Module content

The aim of this module is to introduce the concept of persuasion and the related concept of decision-making. Participants will learn the art and science (especially behavioural science and social psychology) of persuasion that is capable of positively influencing the decisions and actions of followers. They will develop an understanding of the art (and some of the science behind it) of rhetoric, therefore this is a practical module that intends to improve the communication skills of the participants such that they will be more likely to achieve their objectives of persuading others.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations \(G Regulations\) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
