Module content

This module aims to expose students to a variety of business innovation processes including those associated with technology-oriented firms. It will also examine established and new approaches to organisational change and change leadership. Students will learn many of the methodologies for operating systemically, communicating effectively, managing conflict, overcome stakeholder resistance and working across boundaries. They will learn how to build the support systems for workforce adaptation.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations \(G Regulations\) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
