Module content

This elective is designed for executives, senior managers and graduates wishing to enter the field of management consulting. This course will provide them with a comprehensive overview of the practice and processes involved in management consulting. It will address the management consulting competency framework, consulting lifecycle, interpersonal interactions and the ethical requirements of a management consultant. Client perspectives and expectations will be discussed in detail, as will the consultant's behavior and demeanour in client interactions. Management consulting is a very broad and overarching profession which requires a myriad of competencies and specifically the adaptability to various client contexts.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations \(G Regulations\) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook.
