Module content

This elective explores market selection against the backdrop of the African trade environment and provides an overview of trade agreements, trade barriers (challenges) and trade facilitation measures. It also highlights global value chains in an African context. The overall aim of the elective is to equip students with the knowledge and skills needed to enable them to utilise various tools to analyse African markets, demand patterns and barriers resulting in strategies to identify export opportunities in Africa.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations \(G Regulations\) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
