Module content

This module allows students to discover their own creative ideas and thoughts by means of various art media, techniques and processes. There is emphasis on theoretical and practical components such as art appreciation, principles and elements of art, art programmes and the critical evaluation of the creative process. A deeper analysis, interpretation and application of structure, form, composition, texture, spatial relations and colour manipulation are explored. Community Engagement / Service Learning.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations \(G Regulations\) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
