Module content

The module explores strategies, principles, methods and materials for the facilitation of creative expression in young children through play-based creative arts. The focus is placed on the methods and skills for assisting and encouraging young children to learn and express themselves through visual art, music, movement and drama. The main areas of focus include young children's personal expression of thoughts and feelings; planning and creating creative arts learning materials, environments and experiences; assessment of young children's creative arts activities; and cross-curricular approaches to the creative arts.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations \(G Regulations\) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
