Module content

The module is a continuation of the principles and practices of teaching and learning in the English classroom. Further development of planning learning experiences for the four language skills, namely listening, speaking, reading and writing, as well as language structure and grammar is focused on, based on the principles of inquiry-led learning, blended learning and constructive alignment. Designing of lessons and learning and teaching support materials (LTSM) are developed, with a strong focus on technology and e-learning. Various teaching styles relevant to the learning experience are dealt with.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations \(G Regulations\) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
