Module content

The focus in this learning area is on a theoretical and practical knowledge of the subject matter relating to the specific subject discipline, as well as on effectively collecting, analysing, organising and critically evaluating the creative process stipulated by the Curriculum and Assessment Policy Statement (CAPS) and policy documents. The module enables students to teach subject matter responsibly and effectively as successful educators, by using problem statement, planning and presentation skills.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations \(G Regulations\) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
