Module content

On attainment of the learning outcomes students demonstrates their knowledge and understanding of the theory to be applied in all practical sport and movement development situations as prescribed by the National Curriculum and Assessment policy statement in a school environment. Particular attention is given to metacognitive skills development of the students in order to empower them for their teaching tasks, as well as to enable them to engender these metacognitive skills in their learners.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations (G Regulations) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
