Module content

This module gives and overview of guidance and counselling within the school context with the principles of positive psychology as the underlying foundation. The module strives to equip the student teacher with knowledge and skills to screen, identify, assess and support learners with physical and physiological impairment and learners who display challenging behaviour in the classroom. The student teacher will be exposed to how contextual psychosocial care and support as well as career guidance can be implemented in schools.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations (G Regulations) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
