Module content

This module explores the role of parents, families and the community in early childhood development and learning and examines the key role of ECE educators/caregivers in involving parents/families and the community in the education and care of their children. The main areas of focus in the module include theories that inform development of relationships with parents/families and the community; family and community contextual factors that impact on the lives of children; parental/community involvement strategies and programmes; and family and community support services and resources within the context of South Africa.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations \(G Regulations\) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
