PGCE (Senior Phase and Further Education and Training Teaching) (09227031)

Department	Humanities Education
Minimum duration of study	1 year
Total credits	120
NQF level	07

Programme information

The PGCE consists of a university-based learning (UBL) component and a school-based learning (SBL) component. The UBL component is presented in the format of classroom-based learning during which students construct a practice theory of and for education. For the purpose of the SBL component, students are placed in two partnerships schools with different compositions of a shadow week of 3 weeks and an extended placement of 7 weeks which amounts to a total of 10 weeks, during which they engage in education practice while they are supported and assessed by qualified mentor teachers and university lecturers.

The choices in compiling the package have to be approved by the package coordinator before registration.

Admission requirements

 Relevant bachelor's degree, or a relevant approved diploma with at least one module relevant to a school subject, passed at second-year diploma /bachelor's level for the Senior Phase, and at least one module relevant to a school subject, passed at third-year diploma/ bachelor's level for the Further Education and Training Phase

Additional requirements

Senior Phase and FET Phase Teaching:

For an SP Specialisation: Appropriate subjects at second-year level (see programme modules).

For an FET Specialisation: Appropriate major subject at least at completed second-year level at NQF level 7 (see programme modules).

To become a First Language teacher or First Additional Language teacher a prospective student need to have successfully passed all academic modules at third-year university level for FET and second-year university level for SP; and have demonstrated mastery of or proficiency in the specific language.

Mastery of or proficiency in the specific language can be gauged by submitting sufficient proof from a recognised and accredited Language testing system; and/or consideration by the Dean in accordance with the selection committee after an interview.

A proficient/master user of a language has the following abilities (taken from CEF):

- Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer clauses, and recognize implicit meaning;
- Can express ideas fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions;
- Can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes;
- Can summarize information from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation;
- Can express him/herself spontaneously, very fluently and precisely, differentiating finer shades of meaning even in the most complex situation

If a student is selected into the PGCE and it becomes evident that additional Language learning is necessary, students may be requested to enrol for specialised modules such as ENG 118 for English Grammar etc. concurrently.

For Foreign Language teachers the following candidates can be considered:

- First Language speakers of the language: Second-year university level is sufficient for FET-level teaching.
- Additional Language speakers of the language:
- Student should have passed the language at matric level AND second-year university level OR
- Student should have passed third-year university level if he/she took the beginner courses during first-year university.

Class attendance

The teacher education programmes of the Faculty of Education have been approved and accredited by the Department of Higher Education and Training. Due to the fact that the Faculty places high emphasis on the development of skills and competences, class attendance is compulsory for all student teachers for the full duration of the training period specified by SAQA (South African Qualification Authority).

Examinations and pass requirements

PPF 400 and PRO 410 are assessed through continuous and integrated assessment conducted on beginner teacher competence-based criteria. Assessment and feedback will be done continuously, as well as at the end of the first semester. At the end of the year students will be required to demonstrate their professional growth through various assessments by a mentor-teacher and mentor-lecturer, and a professional reflection..

Chancellor's examinations in the Faculty of Education

A final-year student, who has failed a maximum of three semester modules or their equivalent with a final mark of at least 40% in each, may be admitted by the Dean to a Chancellor's examination in these modules during January of the following year, provided that this will enable the student to comply with all the requirements for the certificate.

Pass with distinction

The PGCE will be awarded with distinction to a student who obtained 75% in each of the Professional development (PPF 400), Facilitating learning (FCL 400) and the specialisation module(s), as well as an average of 75% in all the other modules (not ronded).
